PRESCRIPTOR

Provides an introduction to conflict resolution as an interdisciplinary field of study and the major models and methods of non-violent conflict resolution and management. Examines theoretical understandings and explanations of peace and violence, the causes of conflict, conflict dynamics, the role of communication, and conflict impacts. Students receive training in conflict micro-skills and are introduced to negotiation and mediation processes and techniques of conflict analysis.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Evaluate causes of conflict, conflict dynamics and the impact of conflicts.
2. Demonstrate competence in micro-skills for applied inter-personal conflict resolution.
3. Critically reflect on communication and conflict resolution processes.
4. Apply conflict analysis techniques to a conflict and create a conflict management plan.
