Total learning hours: 150

PRESCRIPTOR

Advanced principles of animation are explored through drawing within temporal contexts, including subjective states and spatial environments and in relation to complex movement.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Investigate and evaluate a range of animated drawing concepts, ideas and their practical application.
2. Engage with analytical and critical methods to evaluate and synthesise practice.
3. Contribute to a community of practice, founded on the principles and practices of mātauranga Māori, of manaakitanga (care), motuhaketanga (self-determination) and kōrero pono (speaking truthfully).
4. Engage and apply a range of appropriate technologies or processes for the Animated Drawing minor.

CONTENT

Advanced content engages in analogue and digital animation techniques through drawing practice. The implications of different variables in sequential storytelling are interrogated through creative practice including sound, typography, drawing, motion, and emerging technologies.

LEARNING & TEACHING STRATEGIES

Disclaimer: Course descriptors may be amended between teaching periods/semesters

The pedagogical approach will emphasise student-centred learning through a blended work environment. There will be a variable mix of individual and group meetings, workshops, seminars, tutorials, presentations, guest critics and the use of the Learning Management System.
